

Persistence

Role:
Performs the necessary CRUD operations onto the database via the model classes. Returns any read operations to the model for view to later display

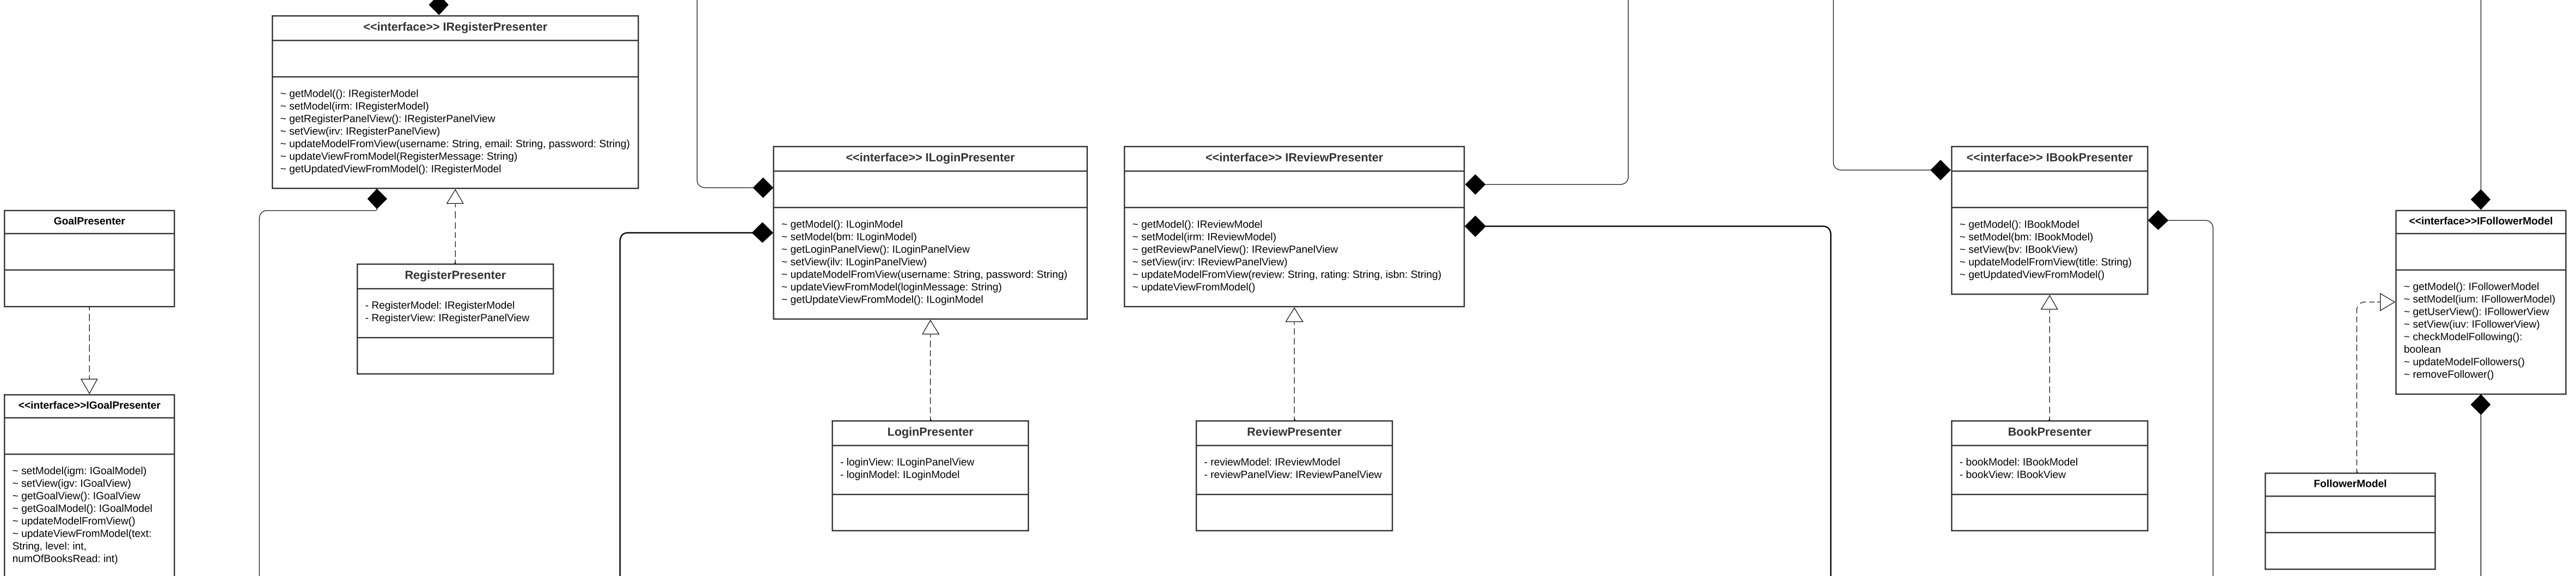

Model

Role:
Handles all business logic, modification, and manipulation of data. Gets user's inputs from view class via the presenter classes. Performs CRUD operations on the database via the persistence layer classes

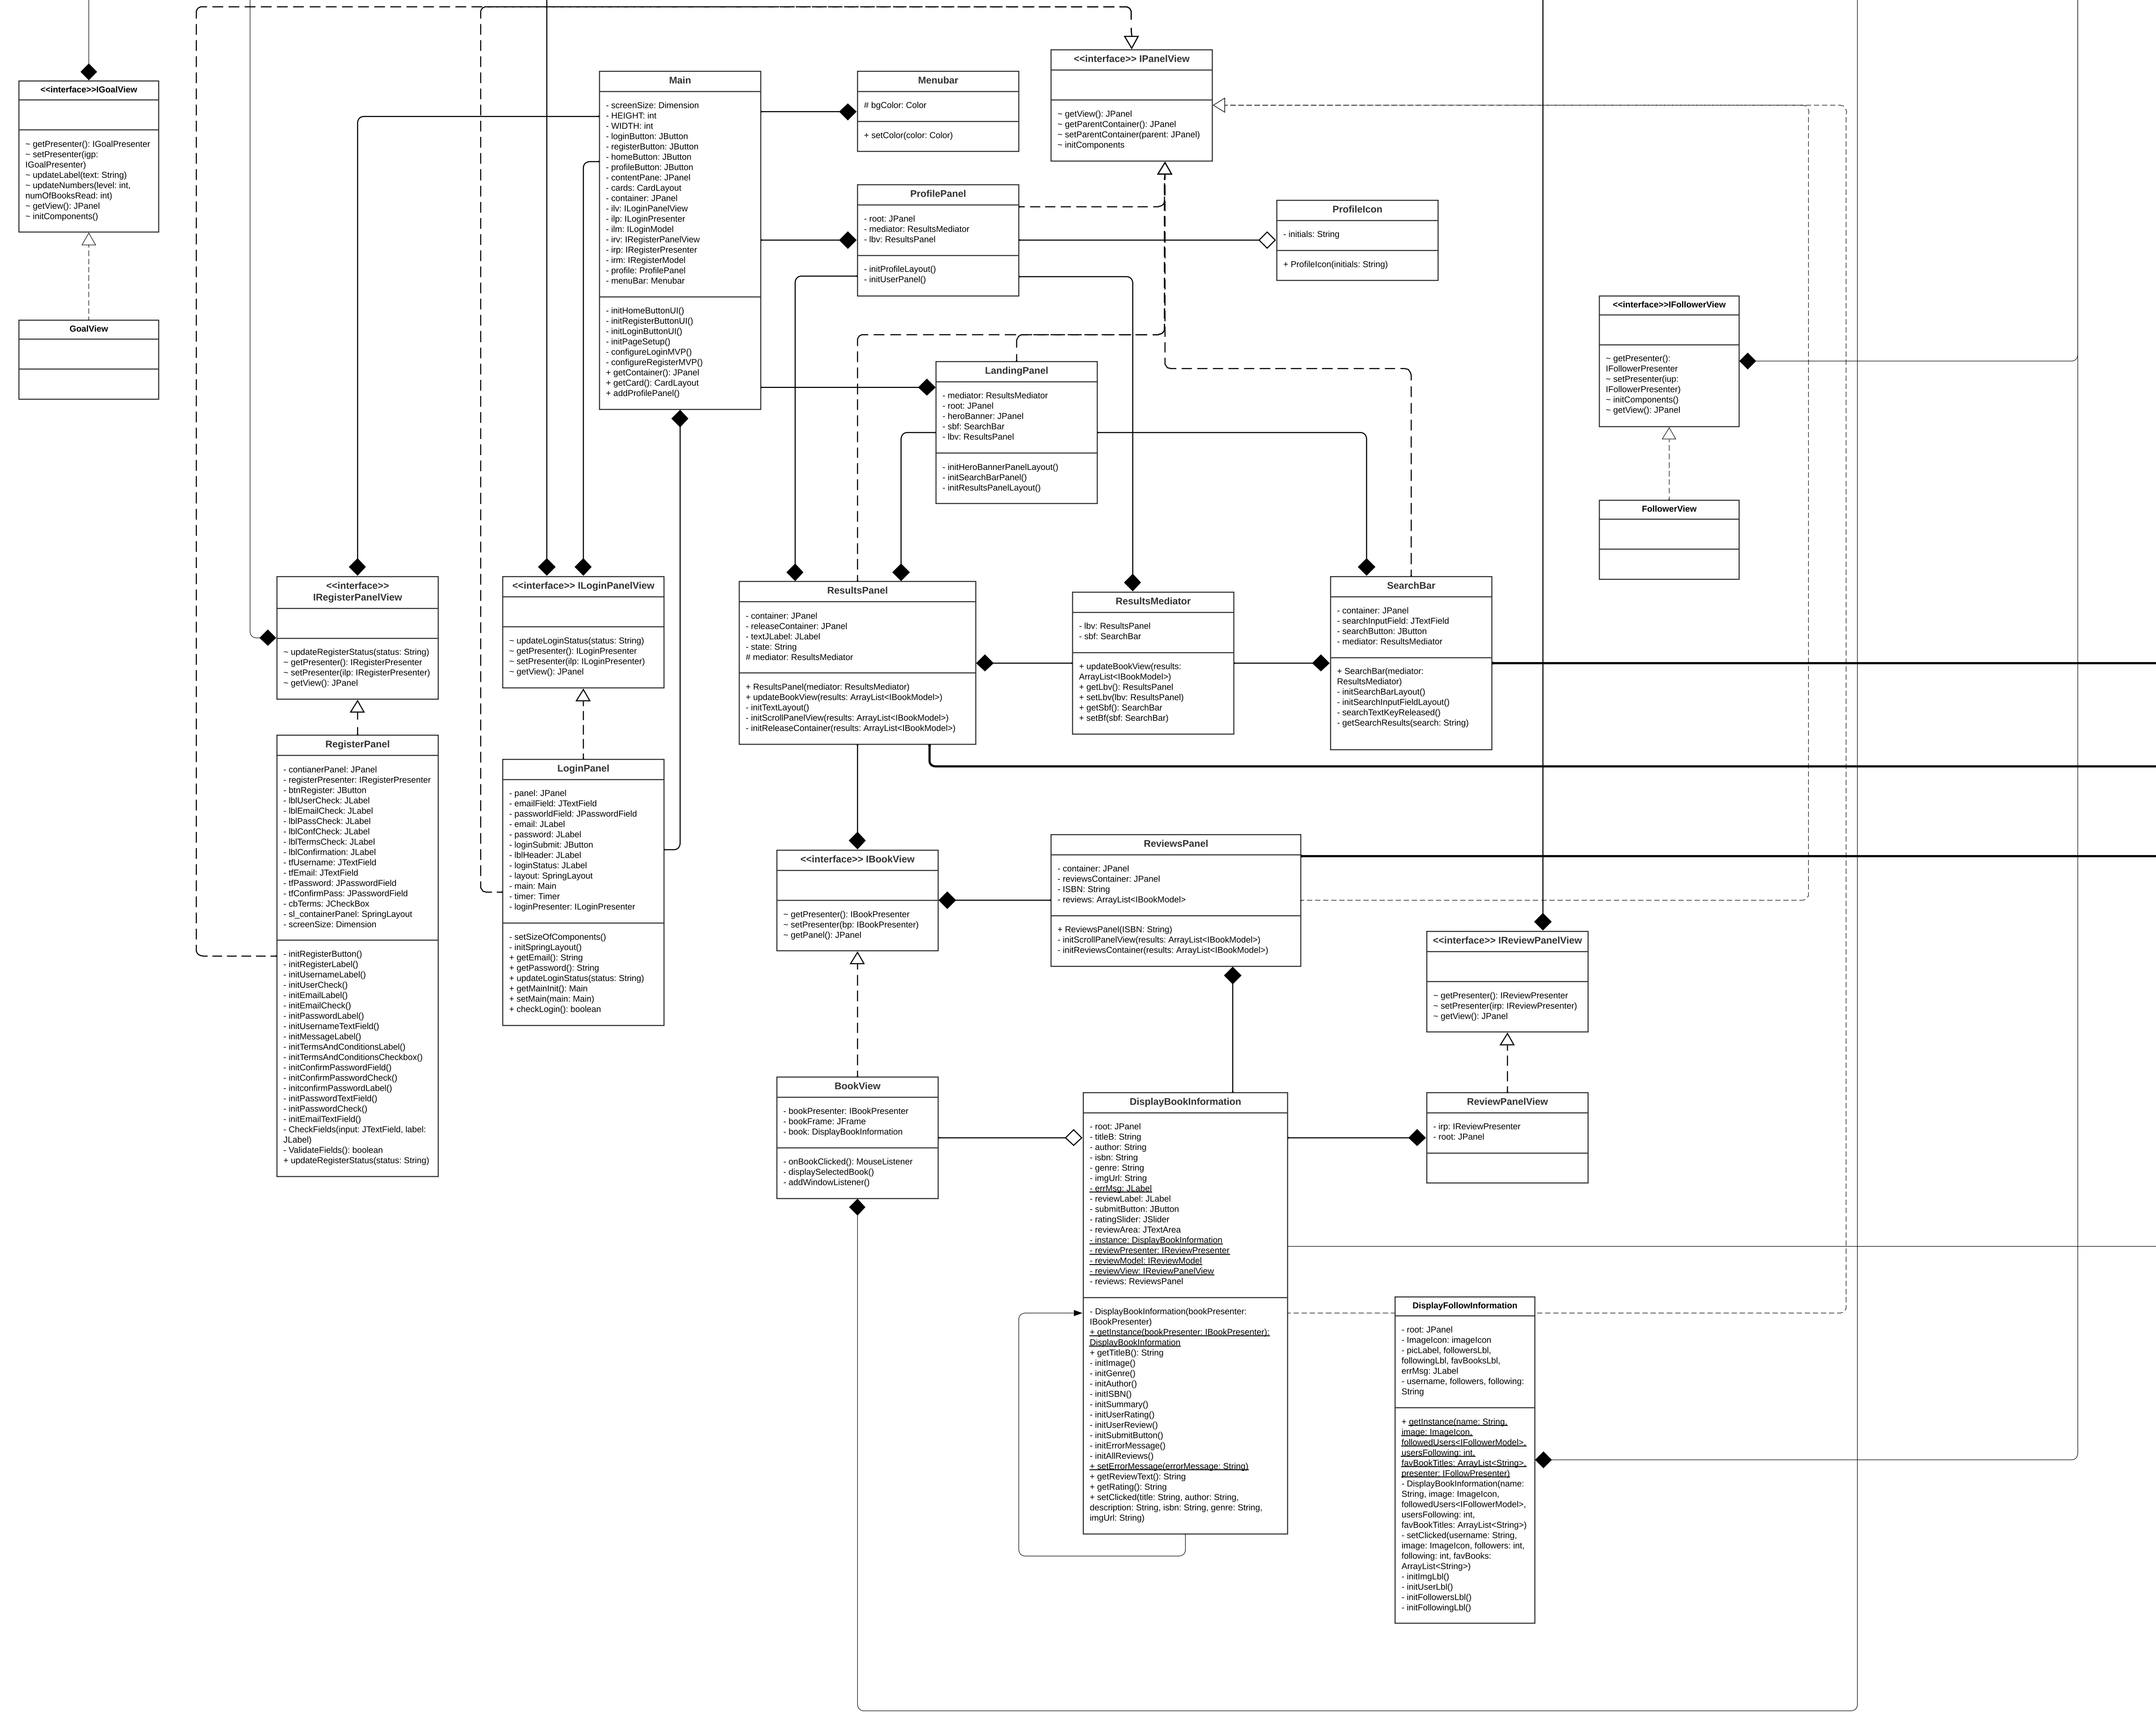

Presenter

Role:
Communicates the updates from the view to the model and vice versa. does not manipulate or modify data, only used as a messenger

View

Role:
Shows the models and displays the models infomrion through the presenter classes

- Testing Seams for Integration Test:
1. Book Integration
 2. Favourite Books Integration
 3. Favourite Stub Integration